Course Objectives*

Beginner 1	Basic conversational, grammatical, and reading skills will be developed. Included is an overview of German cultural topics. Special emphasis is placed on speaking and listening comprehension skills. Students will actively participate in a variety of developmentally directed oral/aural exercises geared toward basic conversational competence. Correct pronunciation is stressed. Text: Dieter Sevin and Ingrid Sevin. Wie Geht's?*
Beginner 2	This course is a continuation of Beginning German Level I. Students continue to develop basic conversational, grammatical, and reading skills, as well as an understanding of German cultural topics. Emphasis continues to be placed on speaking and listening comprehension skills. Students will actively participate in a variety of developmentally directed oral/aural exercises geared toward basic conversational competence. Correct pronunciation is stressed. Text: Dieter Sevin and Ingrid Sevin. Wie Geht's?*
Intermediate	This course is an extension of Beginning German Level II. Students continue to develop conversational and reading skills as well as an increased understanding of German cultural topics. Emphasis continues to be placed on speaking and listening comprehension, and correct pronunciation and increased control of German grammar are stressed. Supplementing the textbook are various authentic materials dealing with a variety of culturally relevant topics. Text: Dieter Sevin and Ingrid Sevin. Wie Geht's?*
Conversational	This course is designed to improve students' oral proficiency in German by reading a variety of texts and watching videos. Emphasis is also placed on the cultures of Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Many students return year after year, proving that Deutsch lernen macht Spaß, learning German is fun!
